Academic program & degree options:

University of Northwestern – St. Paul is a Christ-centered liberal arts university located in the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul and provides students an invaluable integration of faith and education. UNW offers 70+ areas of undergraduate study, including five music degrees accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM): music performance, music education, music composition, music ministry, and a Bachelor of Arts in Music, plus six master's degrees, and online and early college programs, all from a biblical worldview. Northwestern Media, a ministry of the University, operates 22 Christian radio stations and reaches over one million listeners. Learn more at <https://unwsp.edu/about>.

Are you willing to accept credits from McNally Smith students, accredited by NASM (National Association of Schools of Music)?

Yes

If so, please outline your credit transfer process including any exceptions, guarantees, limits, etc.

A minimum of 50 percent of major and 50 percent of minor course work must be completed from Northwestern.

Please describe your transfer admission requirements, review process, and timeline, including incentives for MSCM students.

Over 20% of UNW students are transfers. Learn more here:

<https://undergraduate.unwsp.edu/transfer>

Please provide information about your financial aid offerings, including any incentives to MSCM students (ex: guarantee that out-of-pocket expenses will not exceed current same expenses at MSCM).

Northwestern awards financial aid to every student. Our Institutional Code for the FAFSA is 002371. Find financial aid details here: <https://undergraduate.unwsp.edu/financial-aid>

Please describe available housing options.
